TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

From the West Cliff. "The glory of Cromer," says a well-known writer, "consists in its grassy, flowered, and fern-covered cliffs. . . . Here you will find a series of undulating hills, with turf as soft as moss, and a perfect rabbit-warren of fern and purple heather." From the West Cliff a fine view of town and sea-front is obtained.
